a) General – all four licensing objectives (b, c, d and e) (please read guidance note 10)

The premises licence holders shall ensure that relevant members of staff receive and complete suitable and sufficient training to include licensing law, offences in relation to prohibited sales and good practice in relation to promotion of the licensing objectives, with written records retained of training undertaken and made available for inspection by the Police or an authorised officer of the Licensing Authority upon reasonable request. An appropriate training manual shall be operated and retained at the licensed premises. Refresher training shall be undertaken at least once every 12 months, with any new member of staff to be trained within six weeks of taking their position and prior to undertaking any direct duties. For the avoidance of doubt this training may be administered in-house/on-line in accordance with the relevant criteria.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

A CCTV system shall be installed and maintained on the licensed premises, with a minimum of three cameras covering the licensed premises. Recordings shall be accurately timed and dated and shall be retained for a minimum period of 31 days. d) The prevention of public nuisance

There shall be not more than 26 (twenty-six) amplified music events held in outdoor areas per calendar annum, and shall be limited to the area marked on the plan attached as Annex 4. A legible record shall be maintained by the premises licence holder on site to log outdoor music event dates and times, and this shall be made available to an authorised officer of the Licensing Authority upon request.

Contact details of local licensed taxi and private hire operators shall be made available for patrons at the licensed premises.

 15. Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:
 - A licence may not be issued to an individual or an individual in a partnership which is not a limited liability partnership who is resident in the UK who:
 - does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
 - is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have the right to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

They do this in one of two ways:

- 1) by providing with this application, copies or scanned copies of the documents which an applicant has provided, to demonstrate their entitlement to work in the UK (which do not need to be certified) as per information published on gov.uk and in guidance.
- 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Home Office online right to work checking service.

As an alternative to providing a copy of original documents, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth, will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be shared digitally. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copies of documents as set out above.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.
